Volume XXXVIII

An enlightened man has but one duty:
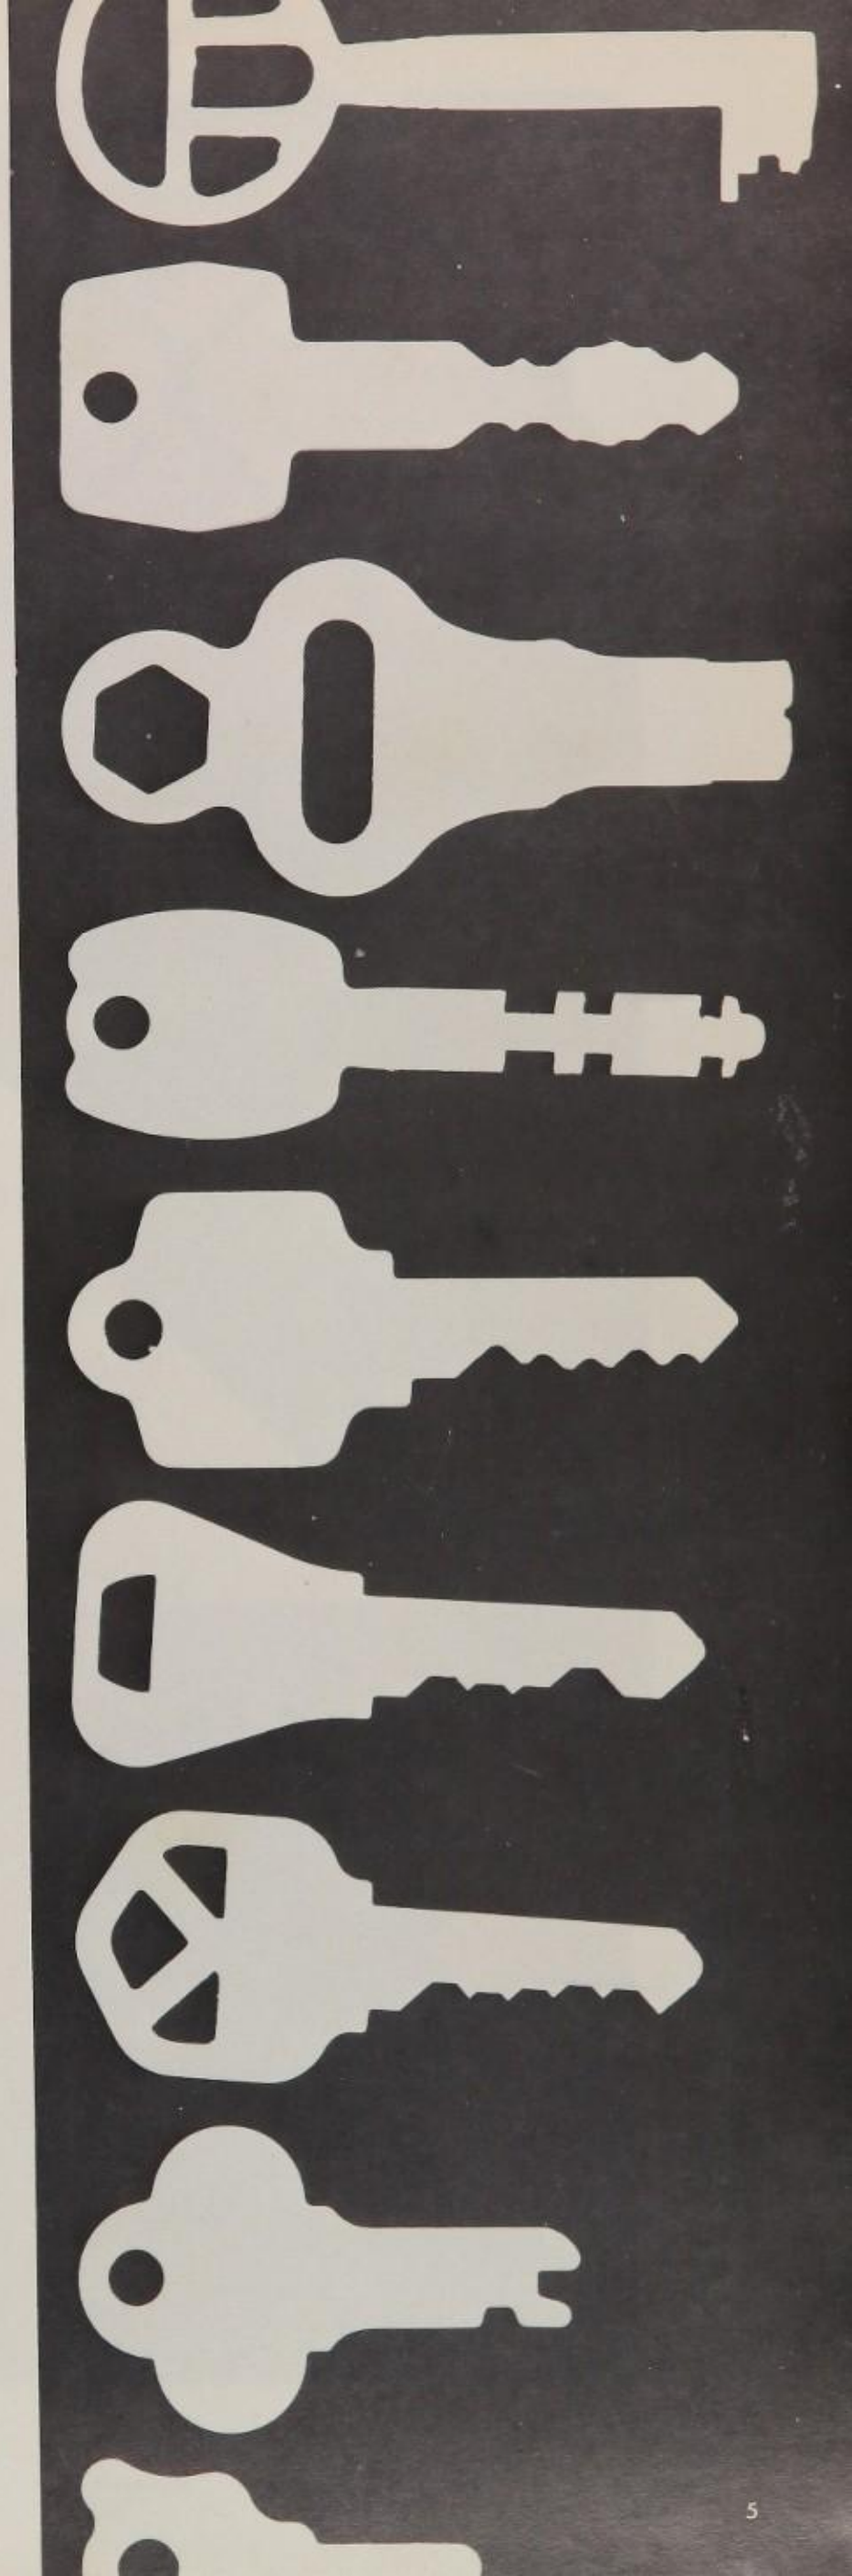
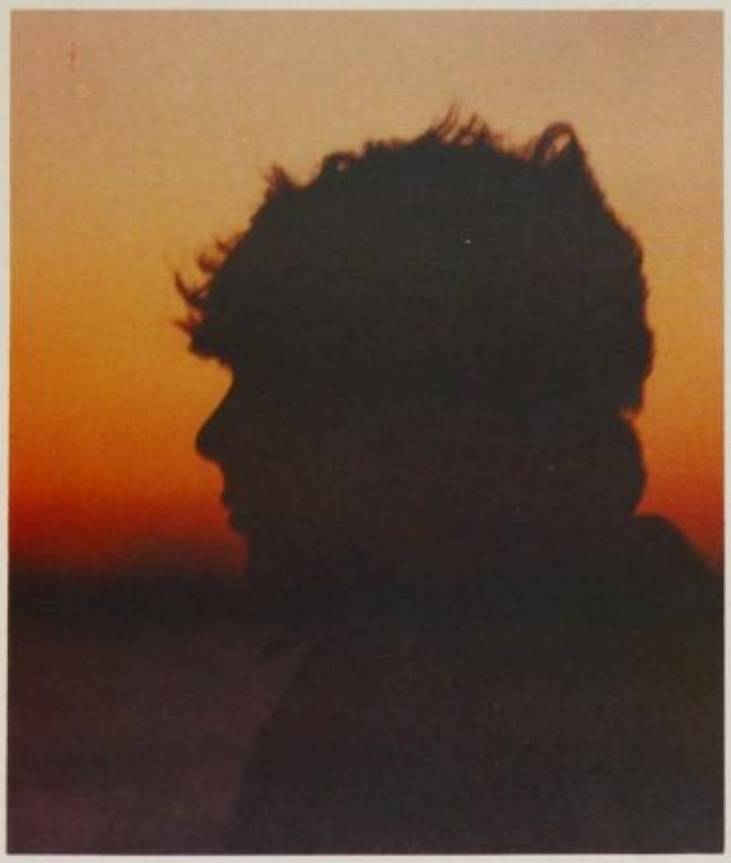
to seek the way to himself,
to reach inner certainty,
to grope his way forward,
no matter where it leads.

Hermann Hesse

There, — my blessing with you!
And these few precepts in thy memory
See thou character. — Give thy thoughts no tongue,
Nor any unproportion'd thought his act.
Be thou familiar, but by no means vulgar.
The friends thou hast, and their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel;
But do not dull thy palm with entertainment
Of each new-hatched, unfledged comrade. Beware
Of entrance to a quarrel; but being in,
Bear't that the opposed may beware of thee.
Give every man thine ear, but few thy voice:
Take each man's censure, but reserve thy judgement.
Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy,
But not expressed in fancy; rich, not gaudy:
For the apparel oft proclaims the man.
Neither a borrower nor a lender be,
For loan oft loses both itself and friend,
And borrowing dulls the edge of husbandry.
This above all: to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

William Shakespeare





As the Sun spoke the gods surrounded him,

Not to blind the world

With an eternal

Ovid

The woods are lovely, dark, and deep,
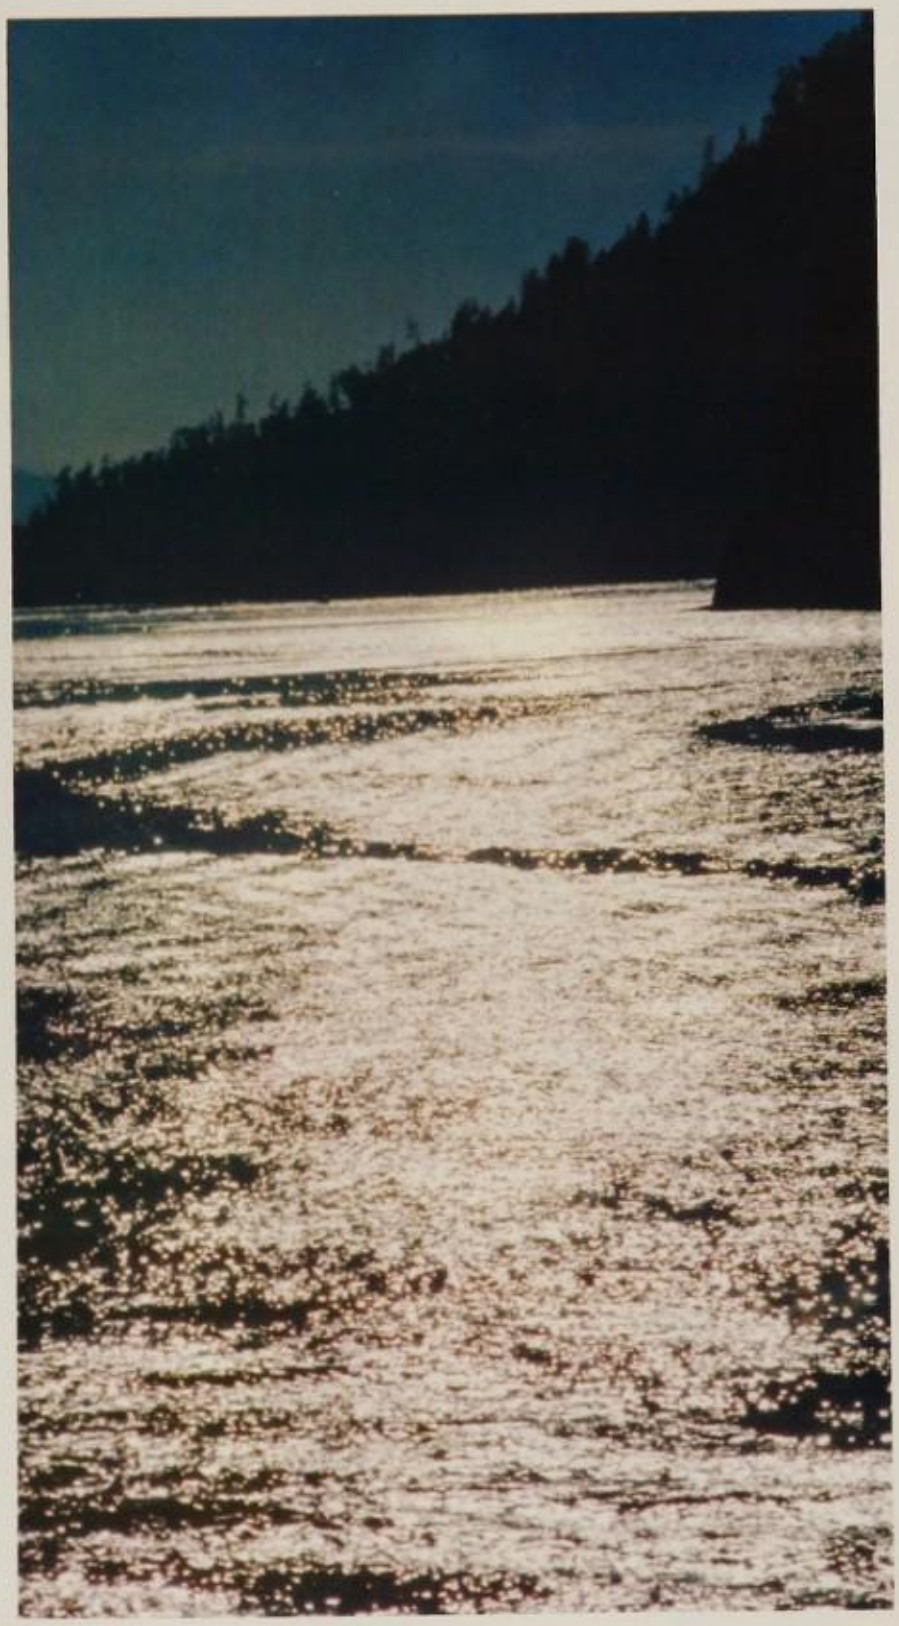
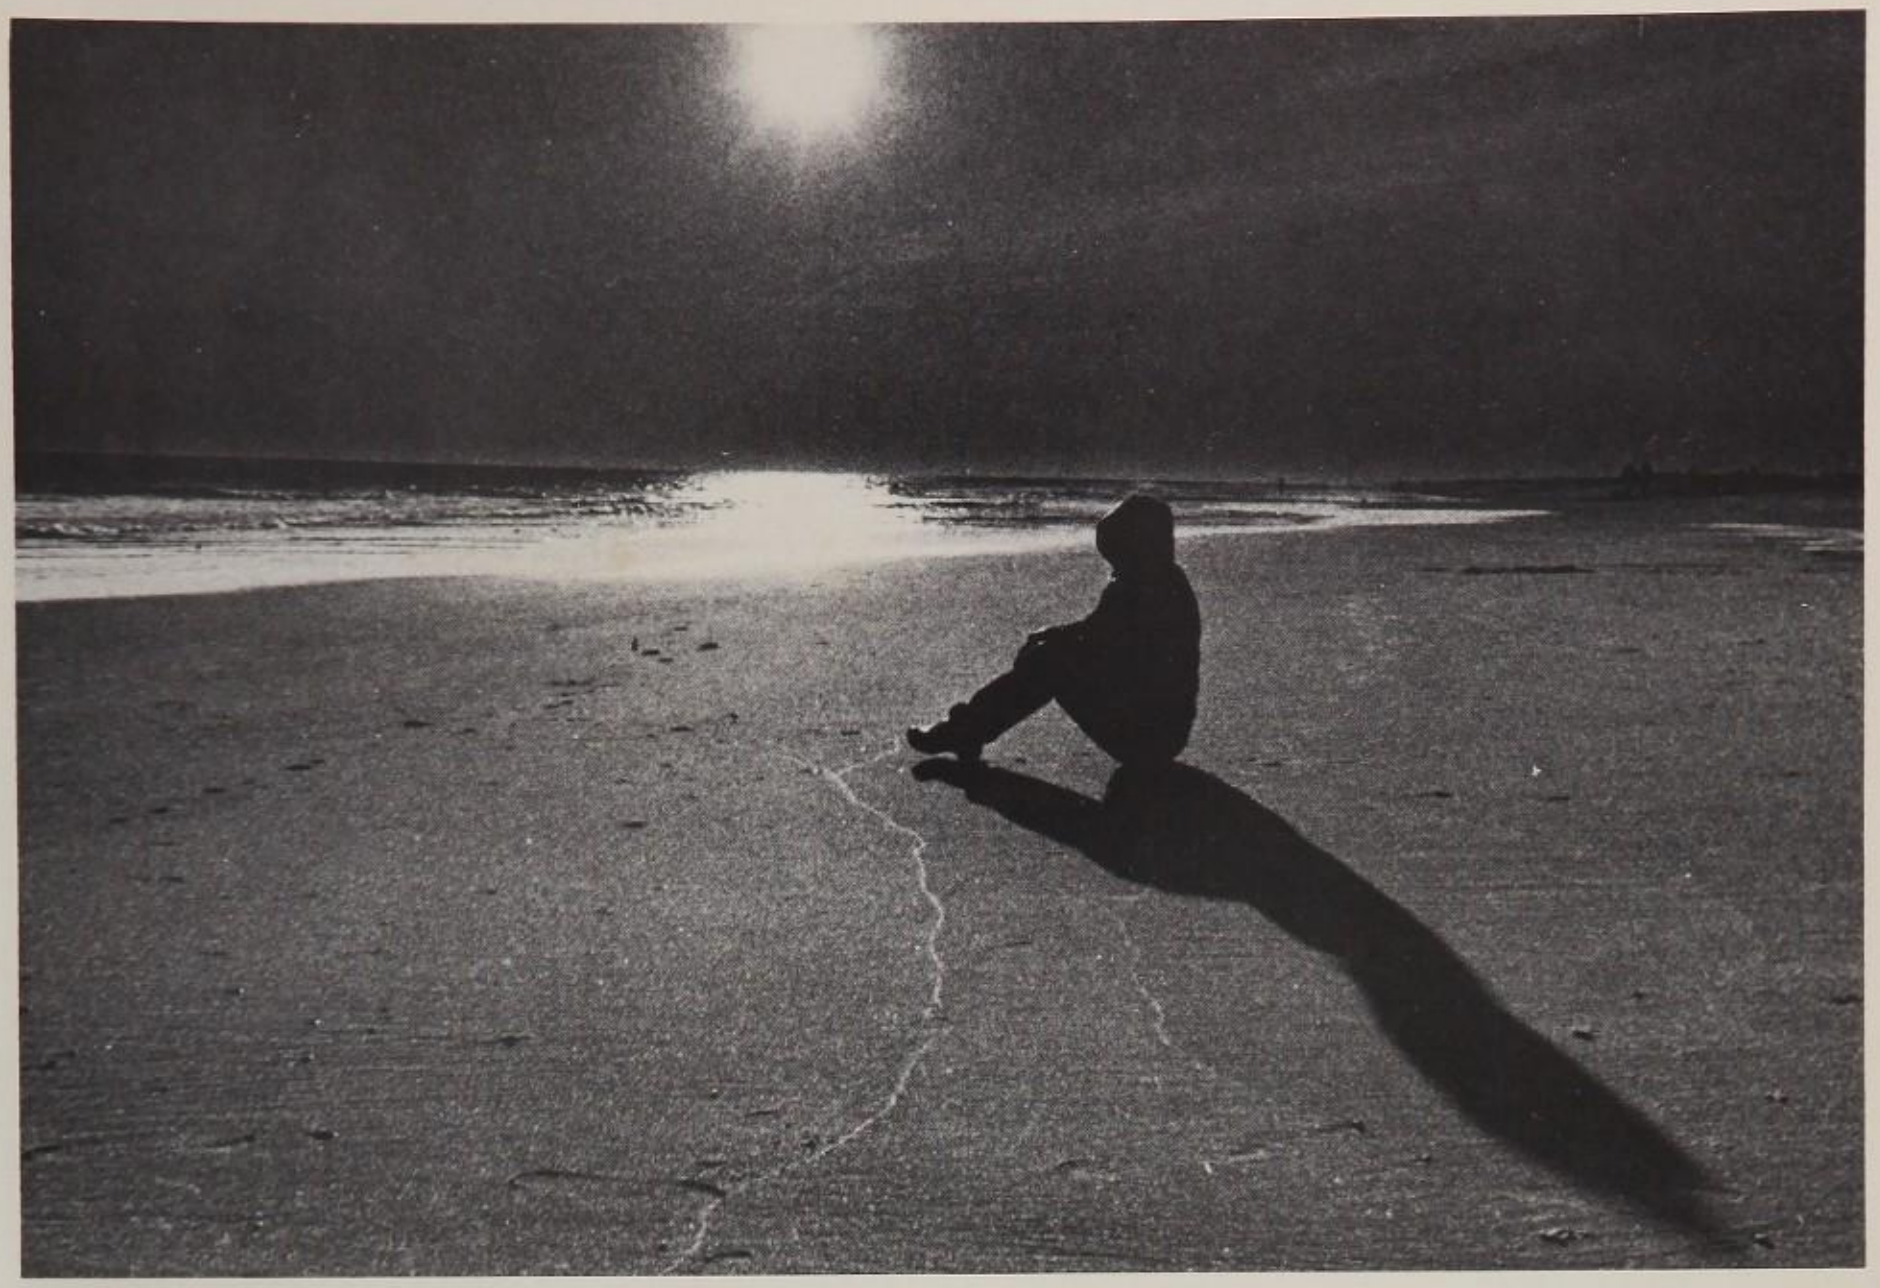
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

Robert Frost





Like as the waves make toward the pebbled shore,
So do our minutes hasten toward their end;
Each changing place with that which goes before,
In sequent toil all forwards do contend.

One of the most important things that I have learned from my high school experiences is that I know so little and have so much to learn.

Joan Gmora

. . . any philosophical thought, much less philosophy, is at this point, immature, unsophisticated, untempered by education and experience. I am now a jumble of impulses; the wisdom of learned others, and the youthful idealism of myself. "The unexamined life is not worth living" . . . Existence precedes essence" . . . The 1976-1977 G.O. successfully combined social and political activities. While sponsoring the traditional Pep Rally, the Battle of the Bands, disco dances and similar activities, the G.O. took a student poll of the issues and has worked with the Board and teachers to improve Baldwin High School. The Student Council also worked on financing and directing the creation of a mural done by high school students. All in all, the high school G.O. enjoyed a productive year.

DAC Formed

By Adam Spindell

Mr. Lynch, Dean of Students this year, set up the Dean's Advisory Council. The purpose of the DAC is to allow students a chance to present questions and or suggestions to the dean. The first meeting was attended by 30 students, the second was attended by 40 students.

The DAC gathered much interest when the new attendance policy was instituted. Suggestions at the first meeting included a request that the new attendance policy where a student receives 5 points off his or her average for each cut, should be changed so that a student receives 2 points off for the first cut, 3 points off for the second and 5 for the third. The request also stated that a student who cuts once a marking period should have no points taken off his average. This implies that the

PHOENIX

Phoenix: (noun) 1. A semi-mythical magazine appearing, perhaps, once every 500 years. 2. Not the half-way house. 3. Any publication pretending to come out twice per year. 4. A group of strangers posing annually for yearbook pictures. 5. Two Advisors, an Editor-in-Chief, and 30 resumes.

VOETHYA

Voethya is an organization that serves the school and community in many areas. The girls usher at all school functions, visit and entertain elderly people and children in hospitals. They annually have a Halloween party for the children of the community; send a Thanksgiving food basket to a needy family, and have several fund-raising drives, the profits of which go to charity. In addition, they are the proud "parents" of a foster child in the Philippines.

KEY CLUB

Three years of Key Clubbing and what do we remember? . . . How many points do I get for this? . . . Two presidents in a row with names that can go either way? . . . Adam, stand up! I AM standing . . . which one's the vice president? The one with the orange hat . . . Which one's the treasurer again? Is it Lauren or Merryl? . . . O.K., who's going bowling next Saturday? . . . People, quiet down, shhh . . . Excuse me . . . Anyone want to buy a ticket to the Key Club breakfast? . . . Did you pay your dues? . . . A recycling drive in 20 degree weather? You've got to be kidding! . . . Me? Give blood? I don't weigh 110 pounds . . . You're up for review . . . Eighty-five tickets? . . . Who are you going to share a room with at the convention? . . . When is our lieutenant governor coming? . . . Hey Murple, have you seen Claude? . . . Cummings, shut up . . . What did Key Club do this year anyway.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The members of the National Honor Society are students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. They tutor their fellow students, induct new members twice a year, and, more prosaically, sell programs at home football games.

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

The Presidents' Council is made up of the presidents of all Baldwin High School clubs.

Presidents' Council includes the leaders of the school's extracurricular activities and clubs working together in an effort to coordinate the objectives of the groups with the needs and special interests of the school.

DEAN'S ADVISORY COUNCIL

This Council serves as a source communication between the Dean
Students and the student body. Me bership is open to all students on a te porary or permanent basis. Stude have discussed such problems as co dor control, attendance, smoking, S and "the sophomore image."

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

The Future Nurses Club does many community services. Presently we are serving with the Kiwanis Christmas party for children with one parent. We put together the Thanksgiving basket for a needy family in Baldwin. We supplied an underprivileged family with Christmas presents. The only problem with our club is that people feel that you have to want to be a nurse to be in it. Well, guess what? You don't! Anyone can join. All students are welcome — both guys and girls.

ECOLOGY CLUB

The school renowned Ecology Club. I can still see them through the eyes of cross-country runners as the loyal members clean out the brook.
Remember the brook?
Saving old newspapers for resurrection.
We thought it would help save some trees.
Remember trees?
Remember Teddy Roosevelt?

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

The Foreign Language Club of 1976-77 has been a special group for a number of reasons. For the first time in many years, the club has managed to raise enough funds to sponsor an activity for its members. The heralded event turned out to be a meal at a local Italian restaurant. The Club was privileged to have Miss Linda Zuckerman take charge as advisor, and the multi-talented Steve Monosson as its president and spiritual leader. Not enough can be said of the general good will expressed between club members. It is the fondest hope of The Foreign Language Club of 1977 that next year the club will be filled with equal abundance of enthusiasm and cooperation. Amen.

CHEERLEADERS

There is a lot more to cheerleading than "siss-boom-bah" as our Varsity and Junior Varsity squads amply demonstrate. Because of their skill, timing and ability in gymnastics and acrobatics, cheerleading at Baldwin has become something of an art form. Their spirit and excitement is sincerely felt and their enthusiasm is highly contagious. Being a cheerleader, a representative of our school, takes hard work, discipline, and character — qualities which every member of our squads possess.

We are proud to wear Baldwin's colors.

TWIRLERS

The Baldwin Senior High Twirlers enjoyed a busy season of half-time shows. They performed with the band to the feature number of Tuxedo Junction. With all the girls working together and contributing their ideas, the routines were a great success. Special thanks are given to Mr. Rudolph Aurori for his patience and thoughtful compliments and to Mrs. Swetz for her time and help.

BRUINETTES

Who are those girls who show up faithfully at every football game? You know, our kick line! They are the ones with legs all the way up to their masses. THE BRUINETTES — That's who.

CONCERT BAND

Each year the Baldwin High School Concert Band gives four impressive performances. The music played includes some of the most difficult pieces written for high school concert bands. This year, because of their superior musical ability, director Rudolf Aurori has consented to take the band on an exchange trip to Buffalo, N.Y. The talent and spirit shown by the 87 instrumentalists allows Baldwin to boast of an outstanding band.

MARCHING BAND

The 140 member BHS Marching Band, directed by Mr. Rudolf Aurori, augments the esprit de corps of the many students and faculty members involved in the fall football season in Baldwin. Lead by drum majors Richard Lipton and John Herlihy, the 85 instrumentalists execute skillful maneuvers at halftime as they play rousing tunes. The talented twirlers and the flashy flags of the color guard create a spirited display to supplement the band's performance. The Bruinettes complete the colorful picture. Despite cold weather and rainy after-school rehearsals, the marching band always manages to put together an impressive show.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club, headed by president Steve Carroll, is made up of a large number of varsity athletes. They sponsor various fund raising activities and this year they are planning a Hall of Fame section in the trophy case, for former all-county athletes.

Football

The team, under Coach Megale, finished the season with an overall record of 3-5. Post season honors were awarded to Ken Burroughs, receiving an All-County spot, while teammates, Mike Moreland and Chris Mertens, received All-Division honors.

Soccer

Led by goalie Bob Flanary and fullback Mike Goodstein both All-Conference Selections, the soccer team posted a respectable 6-5-1 record.

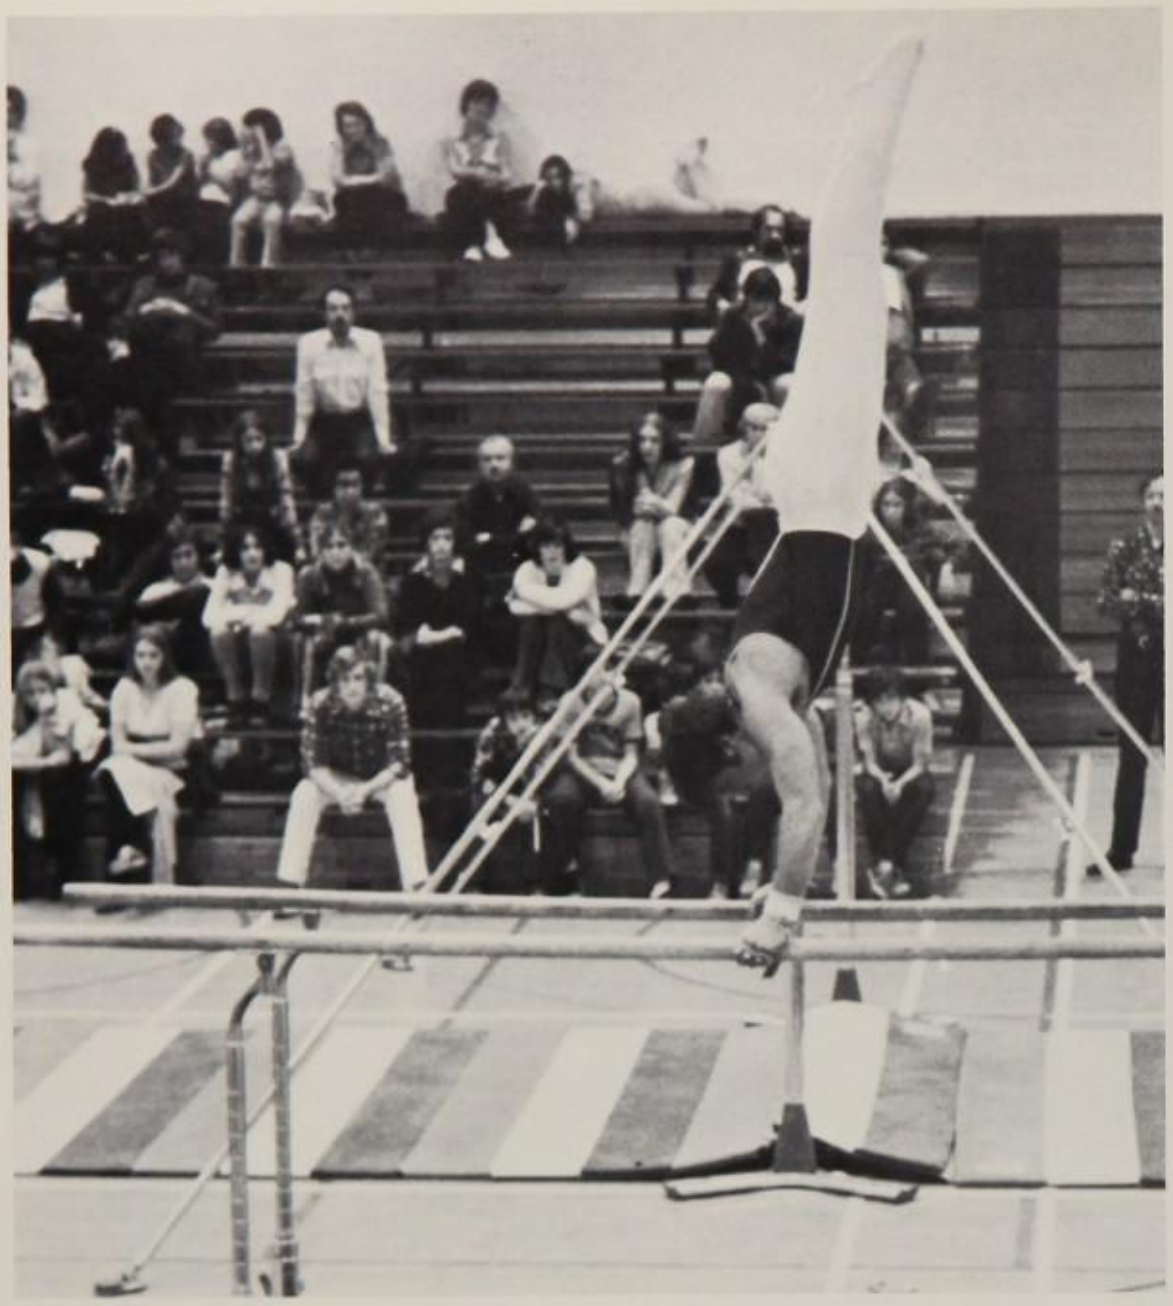
Tennis

This year the Baldwin tennis team, coached by Gordon Heath, finished with a 7-7 record. With a strong season from Robert Zinna (12-2), who played first singles, they made it to the first round of the playoffs.

Rifle Team

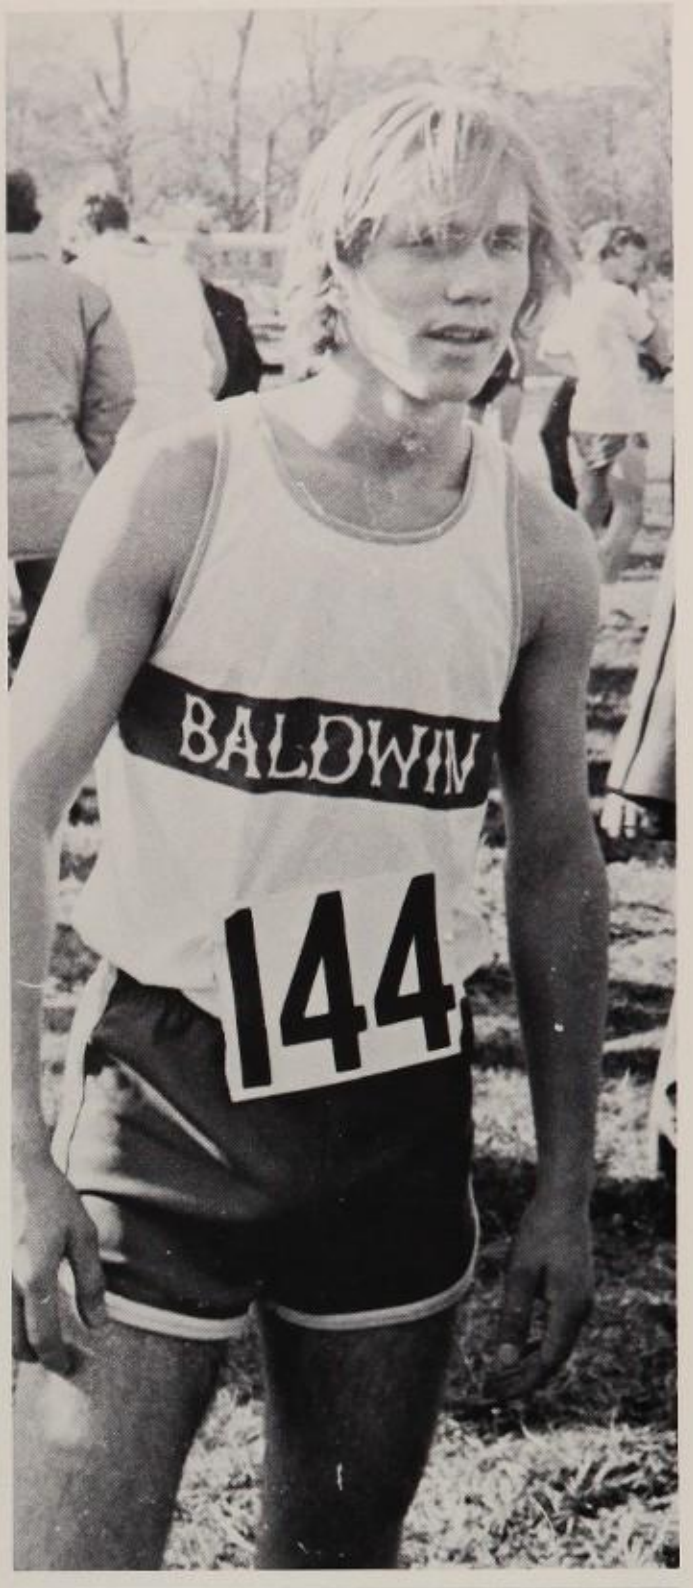
The rifle team, coached by John McGrath and Dr. William Sawyers, is Baldwin's first coed varsity team. Their earnest devotion to the sport was exhibited once again, as members of the team made the trek to Plaza school, as the high school does not have any facilities for their practices. Captain Bruce Lawson is the only senior on the team, with the remainder of the team returning. The team's prospects for next year are good.

Gymnastics



This year's gymnastics team finished another successful season both as a team and individually. The team, led by co-captains Al Wallace and Matt Snider, finished with a 4-2 record and placed third in Nassau County. Individually, Al Wallace won the Nassau County Pommel Horse Championship and was ranked first on Long Island.

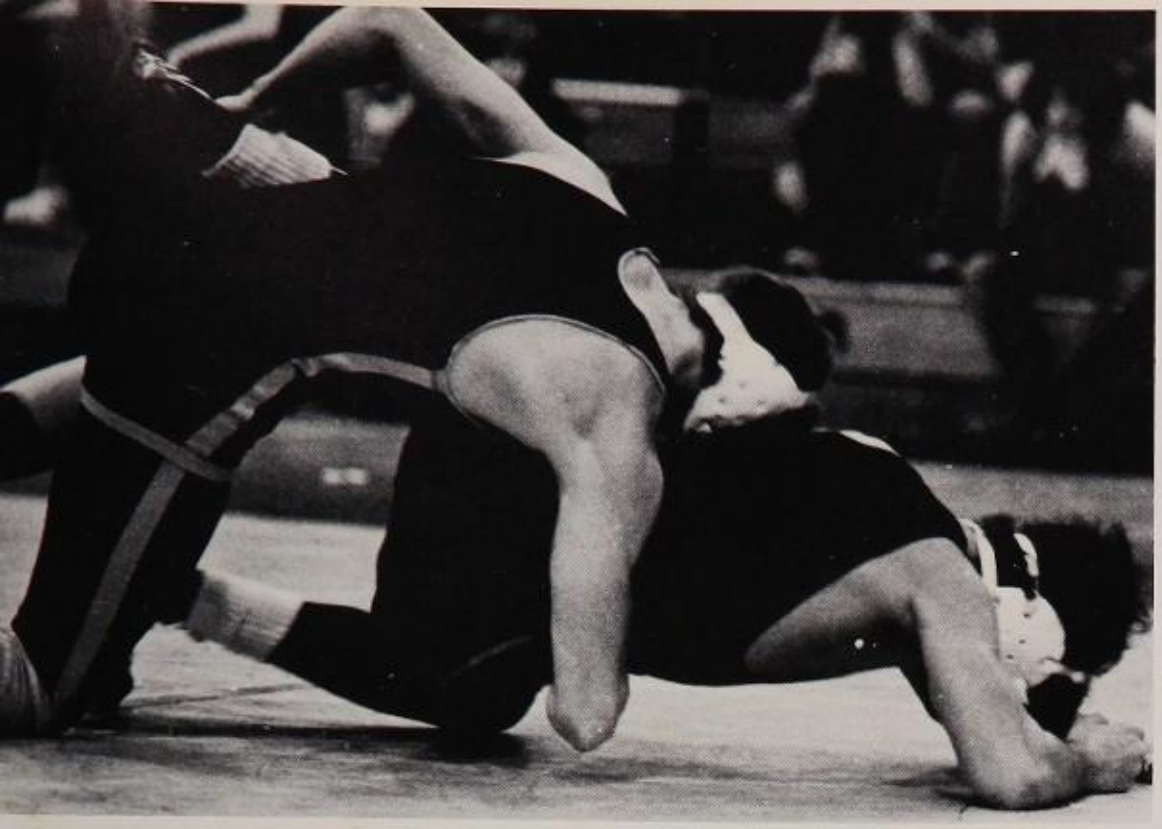
Cross Country

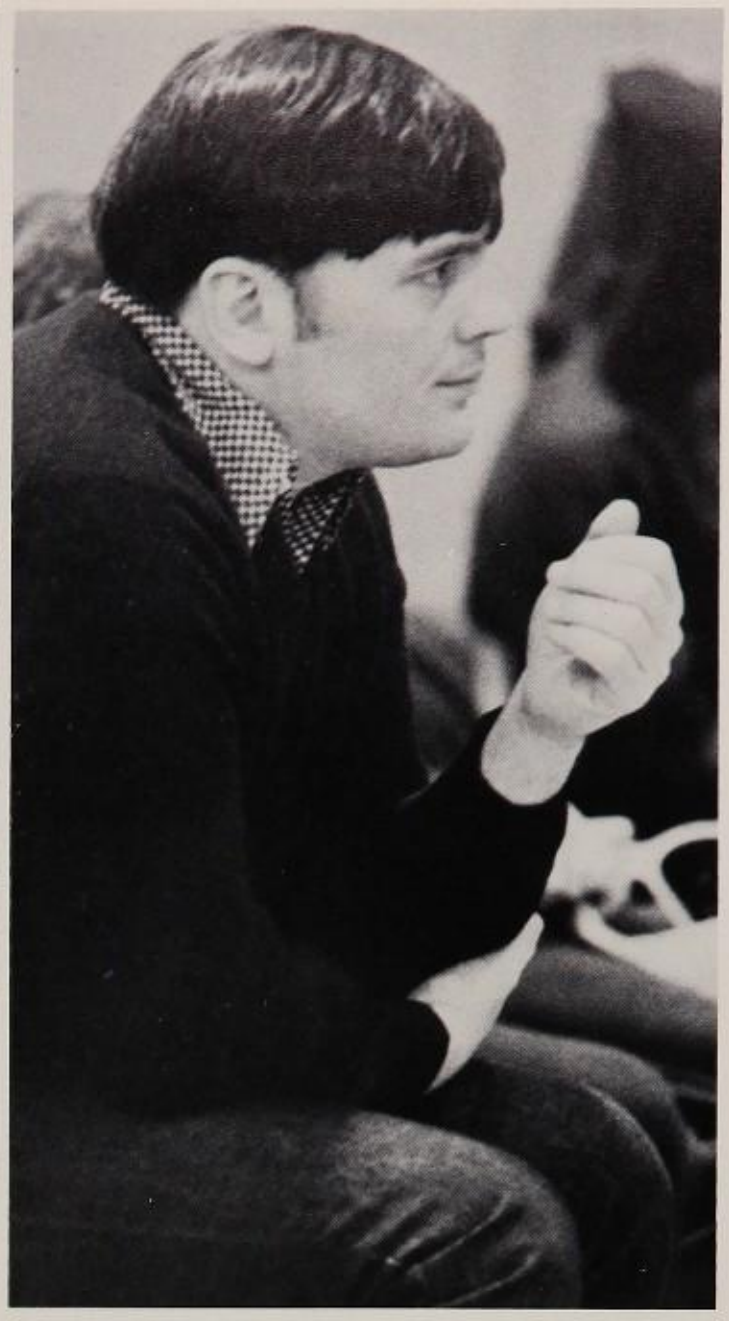


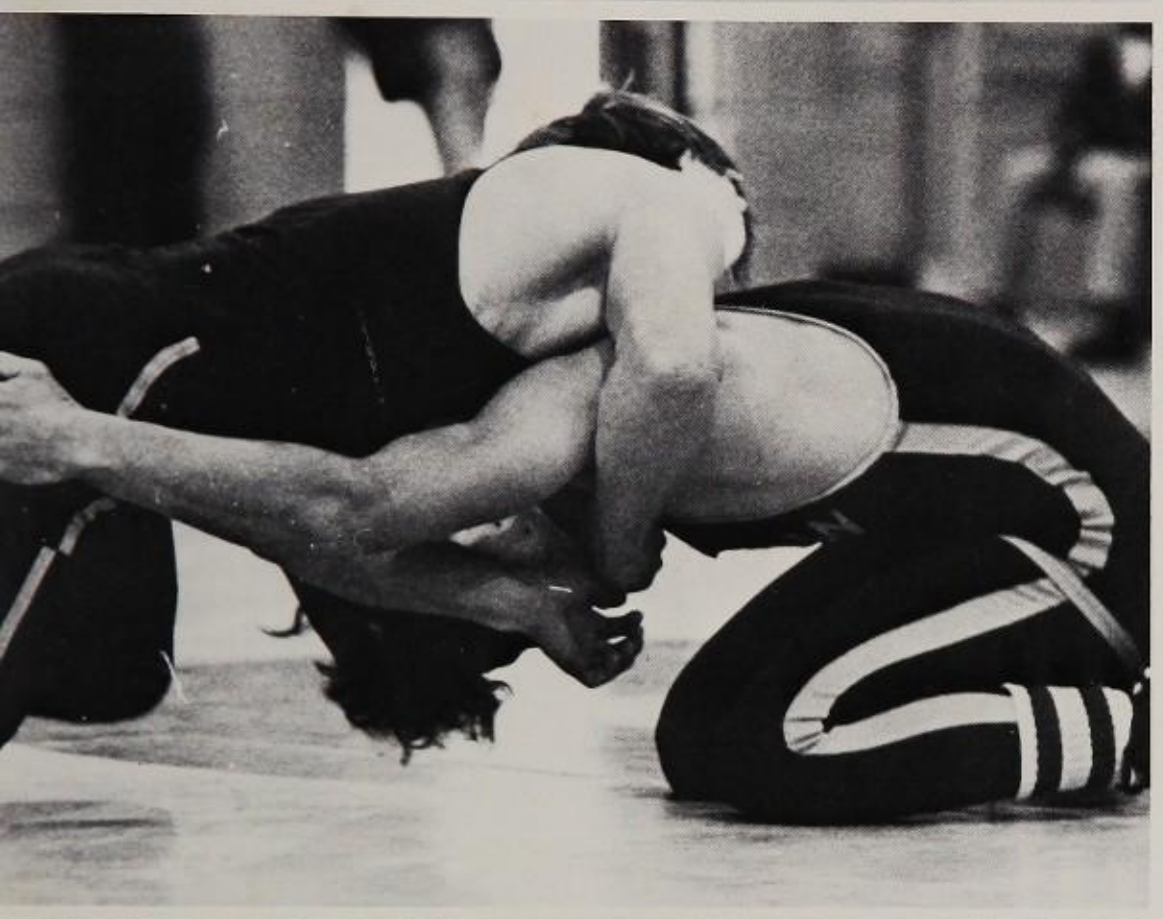
This year the cross country team's top runners were junior Phillip Reilly, senior John Dellasala and senior Steve Scott. All are considered to be among the top runners in the county. Coach Wally Conyers led the team to a winning season, and saw top runner Phil Reilly make the all-county team.

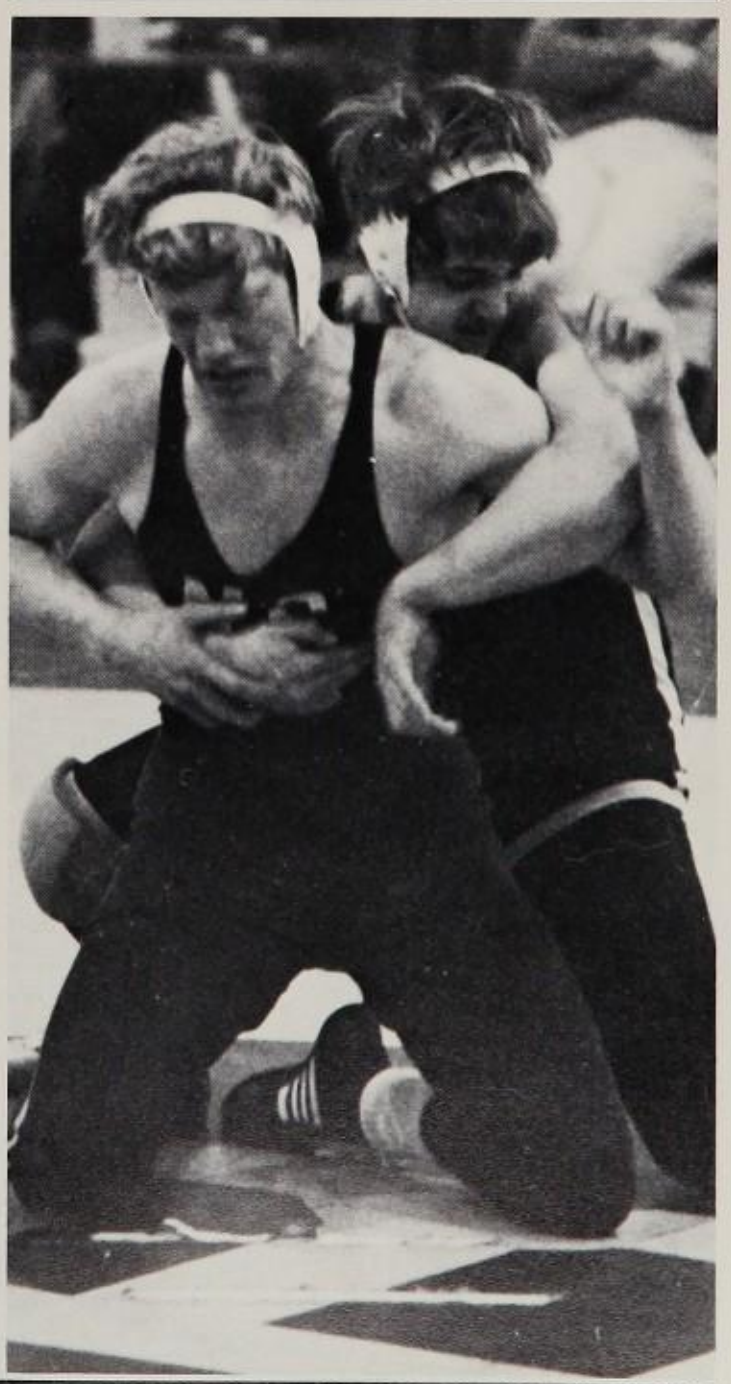
Hockey

The hockey team, under the coaching of Gordon Heath, compiled a 4-10-3 record in the number one division. Captain Chris Bellinzoni led the team in goals with 7, while sophomore, Buzzi Wrightington, led the team in scoring with 19 points.





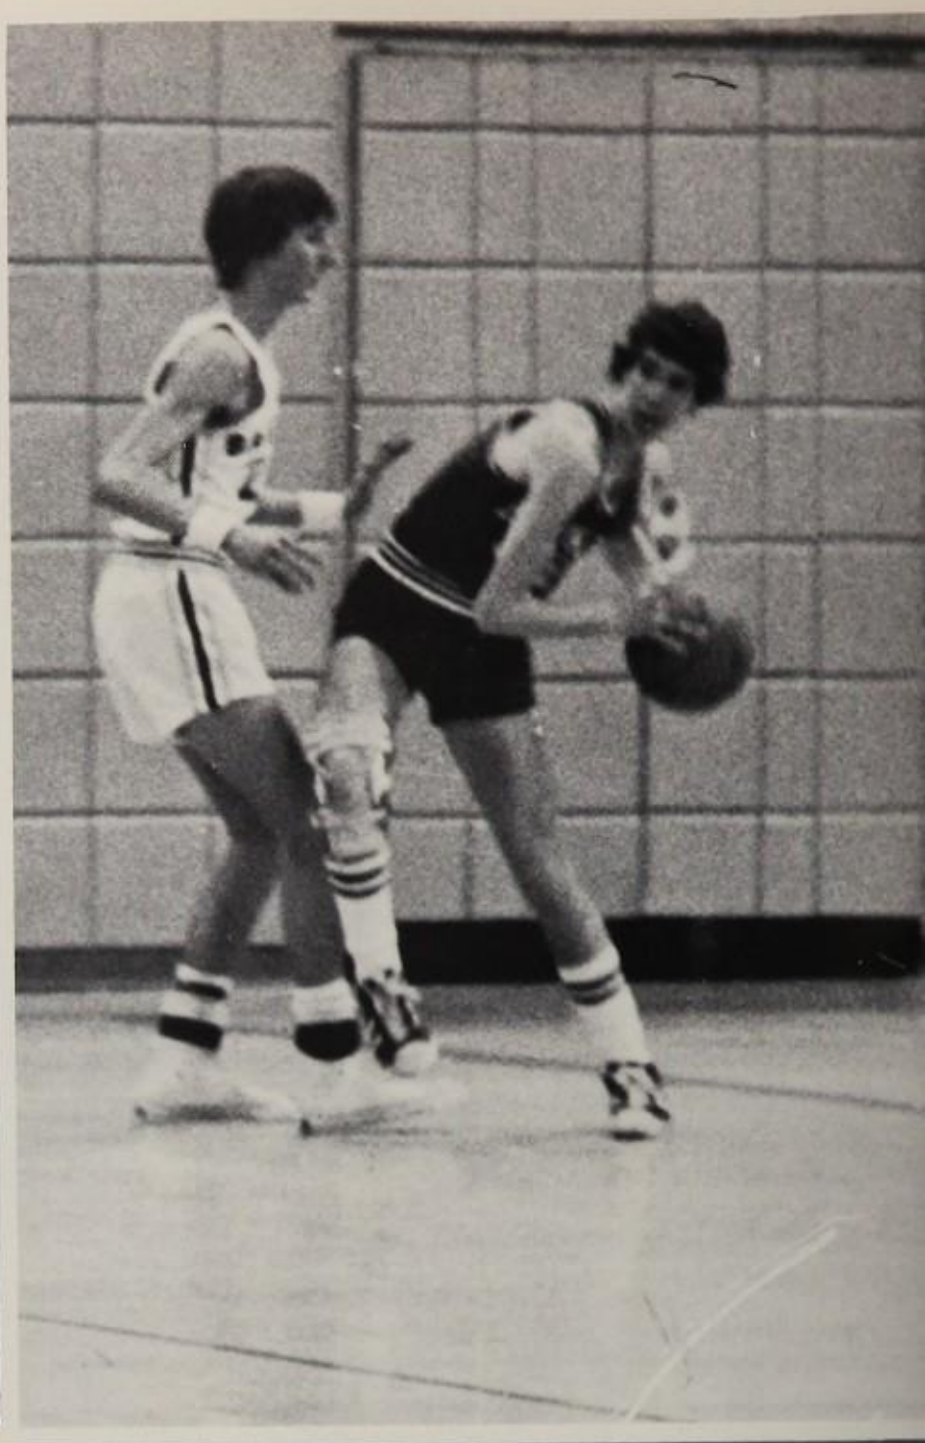




Wrestling

The wrestling team, under the leadership of Steve Shippos, finished the season with a 6-2 record. Junior, Paul Meyers, became the first State Champion Baldwin's ever had while compiling an overall record of 31-1-1.

Basketball



The basketball team under the coaching of Mike Cohen entered the playoffs with an 8-6, and lost a tough first round game to South Side High. Post Season Honors were awarded to their All-Division forward, Richie "Poochie" Fogel.

Lacrosse

The lacrosse team, under the coaching of Mr. Al Ruggiano and Mr. Greg Banhazl, had one of its finest seasons in Baldwin lacrosse history. Sparked by tri-captains Mike Goodstein, Dave Edward and Joe Megale, the Bruins established a fierce name in their new league.

Baseball

After winning the Nassau County Championship last year, the baseball team, under coach Bob Schugman, continued its year-after-year success. With the pitching of Bob Flanary, and the full returning infield of Mike Pisano, Frank Healy and Bob Arcario, the team is the favorite in Division 1.

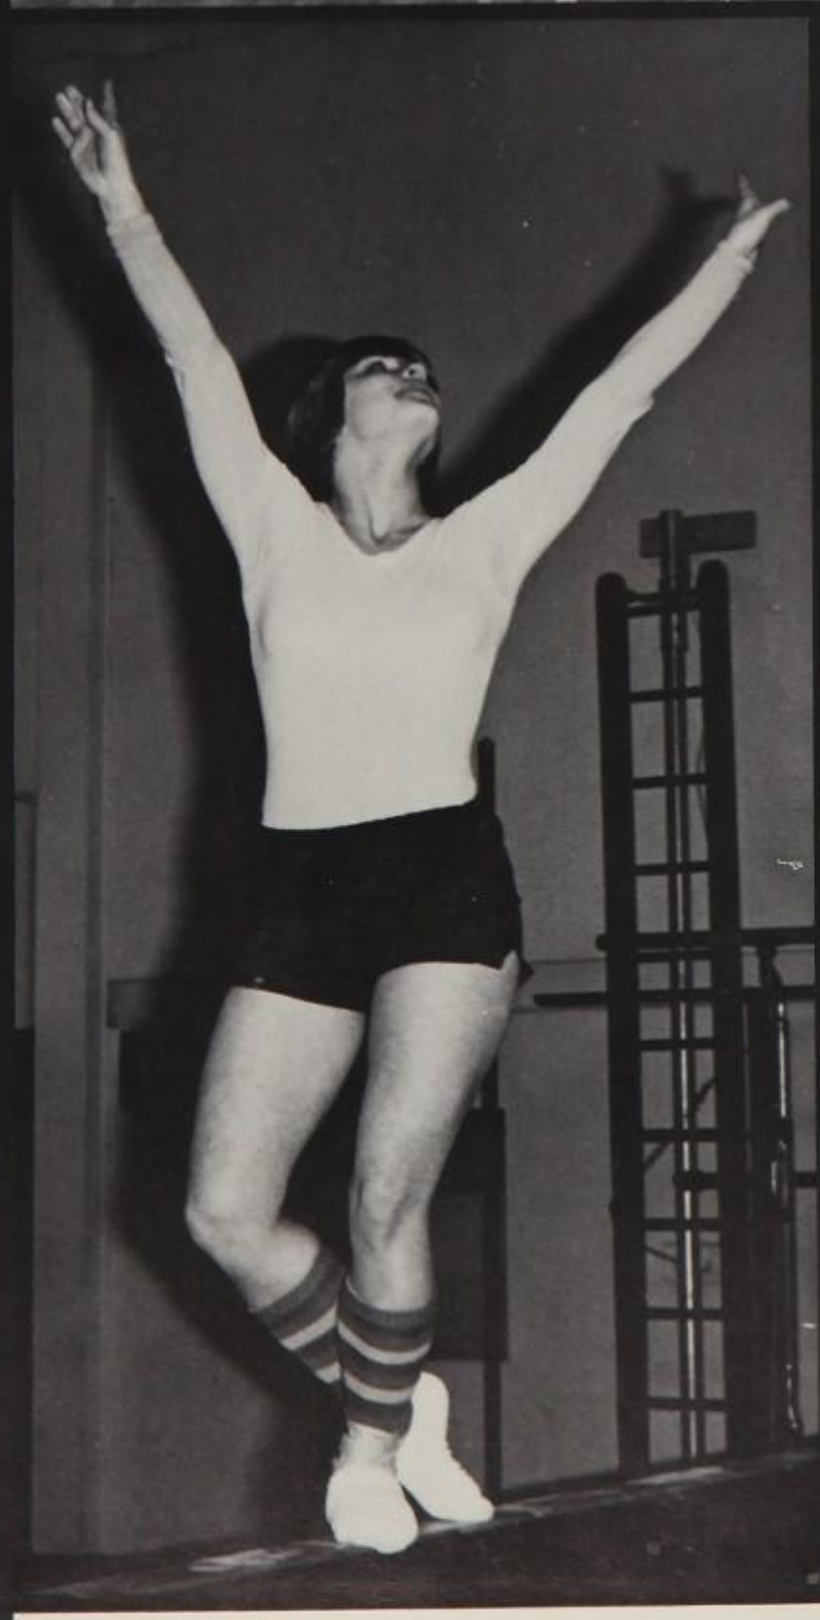
The Girl's Athletic Association is composed of Leader Corps, Service Club, and Major's Club. Together these clubs sponsored the annual Carnival, Intramural Nite, Sports Week, Class Night, and Farewell to Seniors.

Field Hockey

Field Hockey is an active, "running game." This year's team was lead by captain Mary Anne Jules. Coaches were Mrs. Arnone and Mrs. Marra, each of whom spent much time teaching skills and strategy to the team.

Gymnastics



The 1977 Gymnastic Team proved to be a top contender in Section VIII. Coached by Miss Fletcher and Miss Cocaman, the team consisted of 21 girls the largest gymnastic squad Baldwin has ever had. The experience of the returning seniors and juniors, the enthusiasm of the sophomores, and the hard work and determination of all contributed to a fine team and season.

REFLECTIONS ON HIGH SCHOOL

I've come to tell you a story
That will make you laugh or cry . . .
A tale of danger, hate and love
A tale of Baldwin High!

Once we all were Sophomores,
Our hearts were full of fear!
We couldn't find our way around —
We did not like it here!

We wandered through the massive halls —
Our awkward days were done,
And we were "Cool," and we were "In,"
But where is Building One?

We soon explored the dining rooms
One "B" the other "A,"
And each of us looked forward to
The tasty "french fry" day!

We always went to homeroom
We were NEVER late to class . . .
We traveled in the corridors
And always had a pass!

And so our "adolescent" year
As Sophomores quickly went.
We knew our year as Juniors
Would be even better spent!

As Juniors, you thought classrooms
Were just fancy prison cells . . .
You didn't like the lunchroom
So you headed for Arpell's.
You knew that you were "moving up"
And getting A's and B's.
But then a thought disturbed you —
Oh M'LORD! The SAT's!

You buckled down, you joined some clubs
You got yourself involved!
Then Snap like this — and Whoop like that
Your Senior year evolved!

Whoa — here comes the SENIOR!
and all your time is free.
But you can still get kicked out
Of the High School Library!

Your life was very easy
With some minor complications —
But then you thought of something worse
The college applications!

It's time you learned a fact of life,
though it might seem absurd . . .
Although you are a SENIOR,
You are still at heart a nerd!

It's been three years of Woe and Strife —
Three years of growing pain,
And hopefully for most of us
These memories remain!

'Cause someday — When you're 96,
You'll heave a sorry sigh,
And long for all the "good old days"
At Baldwin Senior High!

Janet Fricke

When I was a little girl my mother advised me that I would only get as much out of a thing as I put into it. I have invested time, energy and interests into those High School courses which have appeared to offer me something. No matter where I wind up I'll put as much as I can into my situation in hopes of gaining the most complete happiness and satisfaction.

Patti Kennedy

High School — an experience never really appreciated until it's over.

Lauren Holtzman

The first day I came to this school I got a headache; I still have it. Graduation is the only cure, but I'm not optimistic, college will probably give me a four-year Flu.

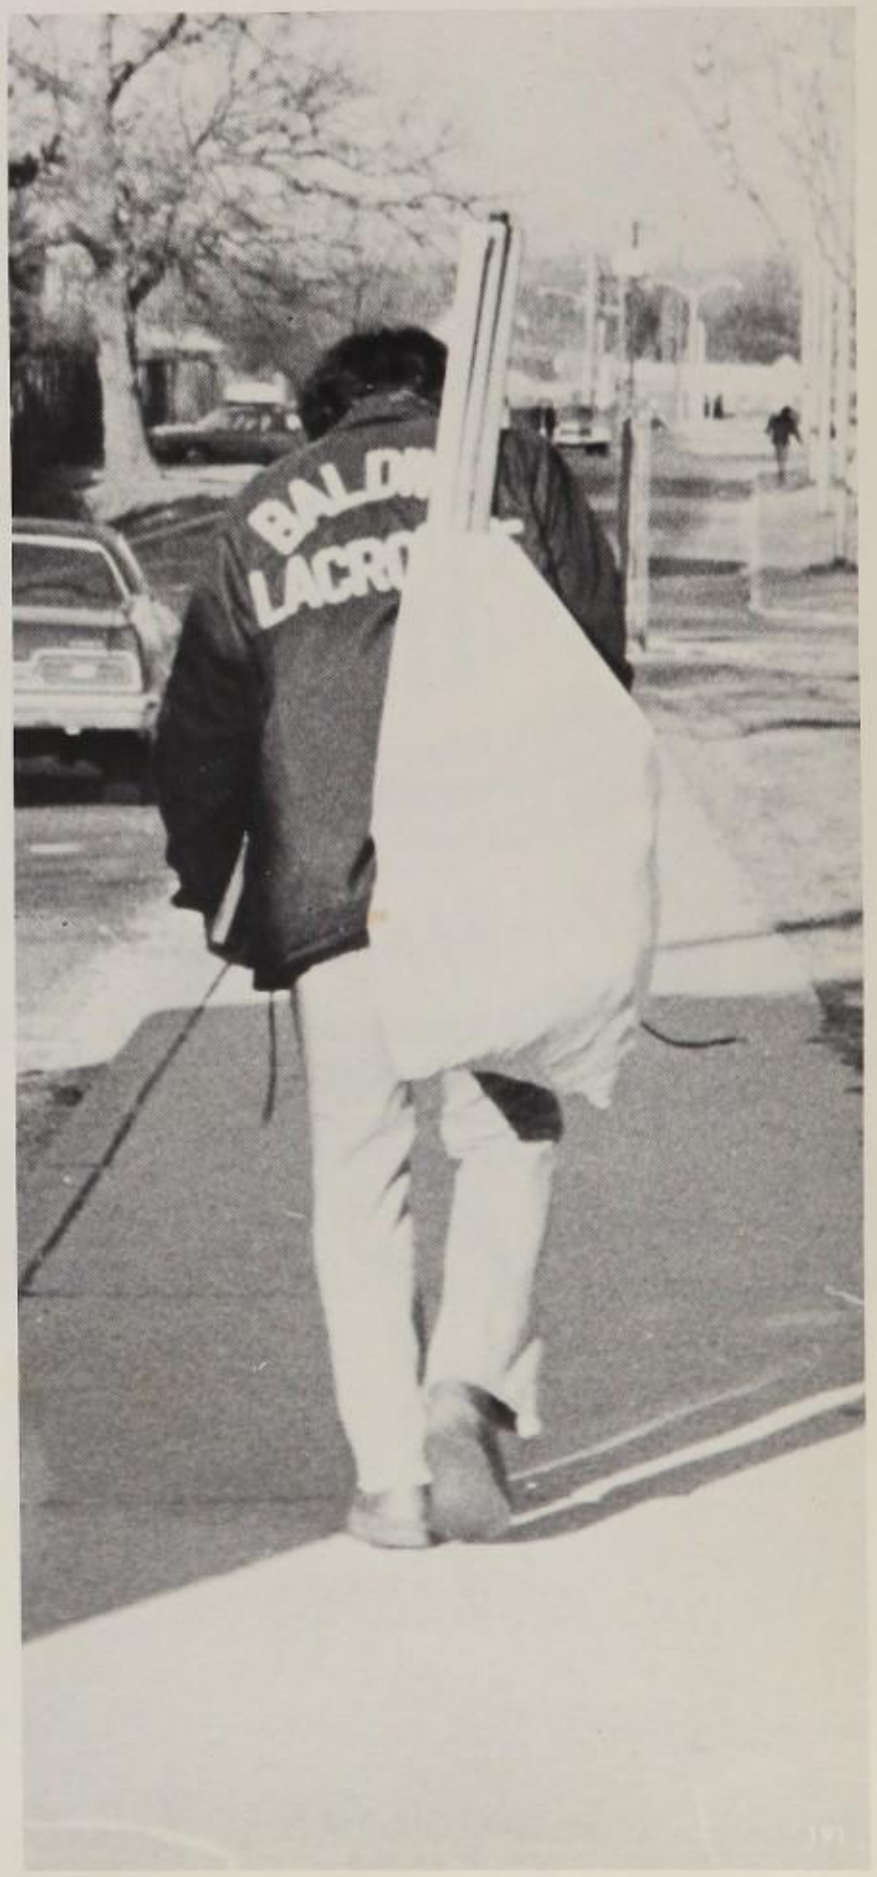
James Gallagher

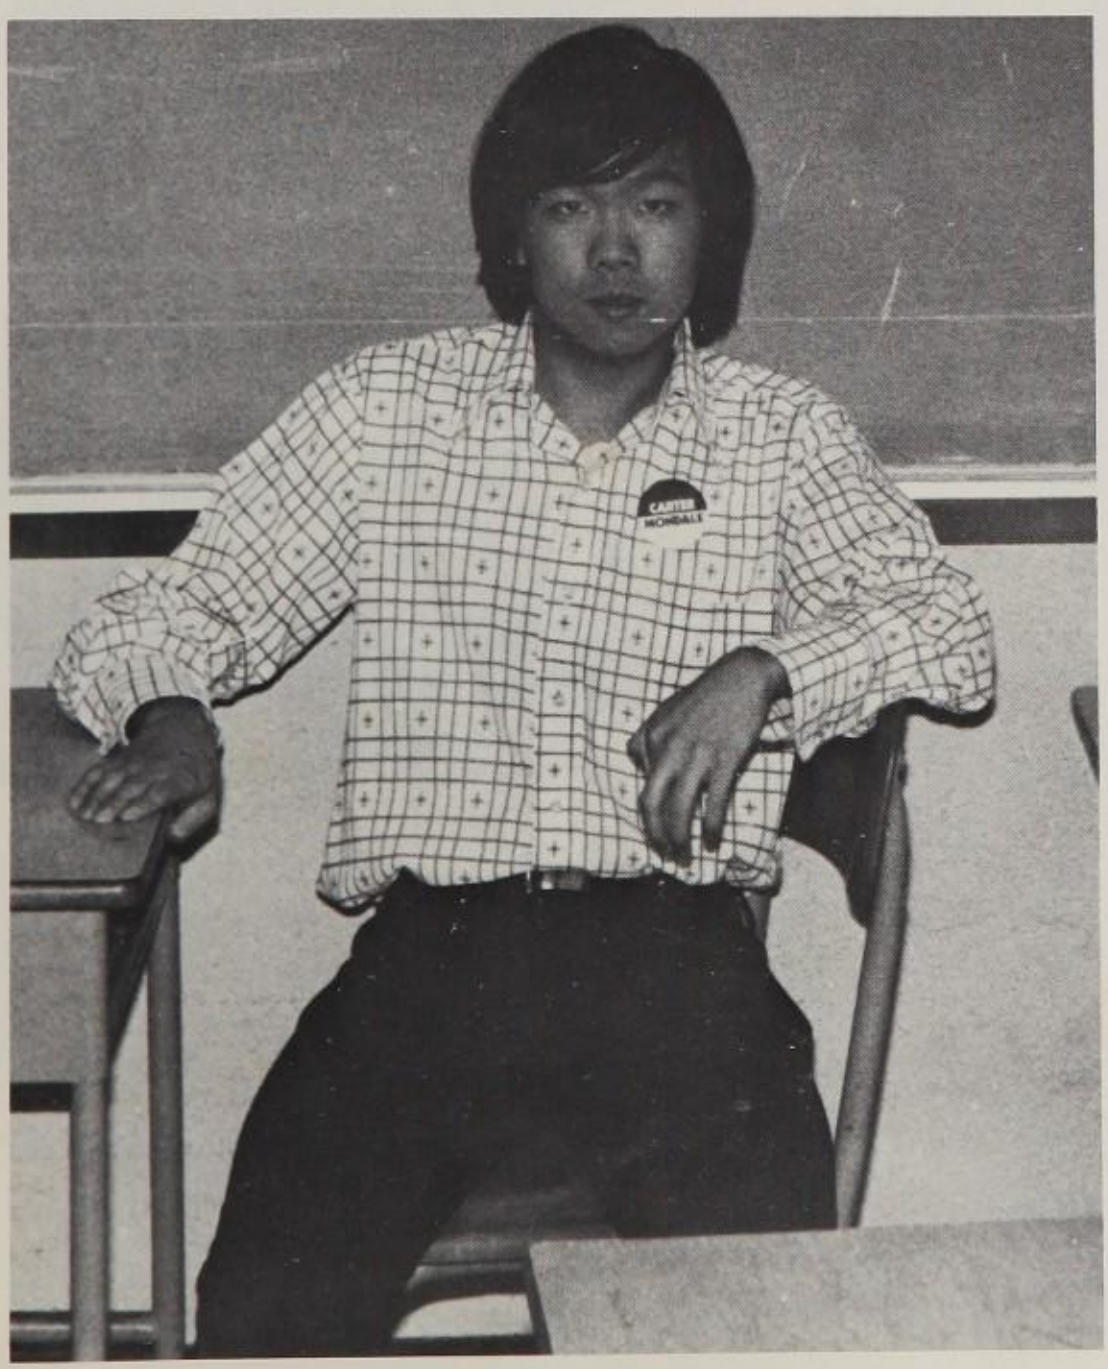
My philosophy towards high school has been a modification of the AA motto: take life one second at a time. Always fight to retain your sense of humor; often, it is the only useful weapon in combatting bureaucratic poppycock. Be easy on yourself; there will always be plenty of people who will give you a hard time without you helping them.

Jack Koenig

Graduation doesn't only mean the end of High School, but the end of an important phase of our lives. Many of the familiar faces that once roamed the halls and streets may never be seen again. The locker room charades, the fraternity parties, even the Sportsnite meetings will all be a thing of the past. They will be logged with the countless memories of one's previous years.

Dave Edward





My life has been a tapesty
of rich and royal hue,
an everlasting vision of the ever changing view a wonderous woven magic of bits of blue and gold a tapestry to feel and impossible to hold
